The Washington Hebrew Congregation is willed $500 for the care of a lot in the Jewish Cemetery and for a tablet in the temple in memory of the wife of the testator. The United Hebrew Charities is to receive $100, and the Jewish Foster Home $50. The Jewish Orphan Asylum at Atlanta, Ga., is to receive $100, and the Jewish Consumptive Relief Association and the National Jewish Hospital for Consumptives, both located at Denver, Colo., are each to have $25.

Irvin Sondheimer, son of the testator, is to inherit his father's business at 509-511 Seventh street southwest. Mrs. Thekla Rosenthal, a daughter, is bequeathed $8,000 in cash and the premises at 1507 L street and 428 P street northwest. Mrs. Hortense Goldenberg, another daughter, is to have $8,000 in cash and the premises 619 M street, 1201 Madison street, and 610 L street northwest.

Lawrence Sondheimer, a son, is to receive the premises at 813 and 813 1/2 Seventh street southwest, and at Fourth and K streets southwest. He is also willed $5,000 cash.

Miss Clara E. Rosenthal, a grandchild, is bequeathed $1,000, and Miss Nannette Sondheimer, daughter of testator's brother, Isaac S. Sondheimer, $200. The residue of the estate is to be divided among the four children. The sons, Lawrence and Irvin Sondheimer and Attorney Maurice D. Rosenberg, are named executors.

GRANGE HEADQUARTERS HERE TO FIGHT BOLSHIEVISM

A headquarters office of the National Grange of Patrons of Husbandry, representing 1,000,000 farmers has been established at 303 Seventh street northwest.

"The Washington office will devote itself primarily to fighting Bolshevism and advancing the common interests of the American farmer," said A. M. Loomis, assistant director of the District office today.

Thomas C. Atkinson, master of the West Virginia Grange and formerly chairman of the executive committee of the National Grange of Husbandry is in charge of the local headquarters.

Germans Enter Paris at Last

GERMAN DELEGATES ARRIVING AT PEACE CONFERENCE

Here is the first photograph of the delegates who will represent the new German republic at the peace conference. In the foreground is a French officer assigned to act as their interpreter. Of course, this wasn't the way the Germans originally planned to enter Paris, but "the best-laid plans of mice and men gang aft agley."

ALL YANKS TO QUIT ENGLAND IN 60 DAYS

LONDON, Feb. 6.—All American soldiers will have been removed from England at the end of two months, under sweeping orders for evacuation just issued by General Pershing. This means the last of the American army in England will leave not later than April 1.

Two Red Cross hospitals in England—adjuncts of the army—will be closed as early as possible. All army offices in London, Liverpool, and Southampton will be closed. General Biddle and his staff will either return to America or be transferred to France.

Extra! Hair Tonic Sure Cure for "Flu," But It Works Only in Menagerie

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Hair tonic is a sure cure for the "flu," according to "Johnny" Apdala, of Apdala's Circus, who returned yesterday from Yucatan. It's a bear! Anyway, "Johnny" cured Fannie, his 32,000 performing bear, with it by getting his wife's hair-tonic bottle mixed with some prescription dope.

It worked so well he afterward cured two monkeys with the same remedy, he said.

GERMAN CITY HAS NOTHING ON D. C.

German cities, with their massive buildings and beautiful parks, may be all right for the American army of occupation to spend a few days in, but there's no place like Washington, writes a District of Columbia boy.

The writer is Private Hugh C. Irey, in the office of the chief surgeon of the Third Army, A. E. F., and in his letter to his father, Charles W. Irey, of the Government Printing Office, he tells of his experiences in Coblenz, Germany, where he has been stationed for some time.

"We have a beautiful office building," writes Irey, "the court house of Coblenz, which is only a few feet from the Rhine. This is a great town, big up-to-date buildings, wide avenues and streets, beautiful parks, and boulevards, but it doesn't look half as good to me as dear old Washington."

"I have seen all I want to see of Germany, and now I am ready to start for home any time they'll let me, owing to the fact that I am a member of the army of occupation."

"We are billeted in the barracks that was formerly occupied by the Twenty-third German Field Artillery. The former Kaiser had a summer palace here, and I pass it several times every day. It sure is amusing to walk down the street here and see the men as they pass—other take off their hats and bow."

"Private Irey sent his father a souvenir—his shoulder strap taken from the uniform of a German soldier. He promises better things in the line of souvenirs, such as German spiked helmets, iron crosses, and the like."

Speaking of the manner the army of occupation was received in Germany, Private Irey says:

"The attitude of the German people is very friendly, and they seem to have a desire to please us, but I can't help but feel that their friendship is simply put on. We are not permitted to mix with the German people or become too friendly with them, as there are lots of boys who have a tendency to tell all they know or hear."

DENIES FRANCE HAS CLAIM ON GODSOL

Emphasizing the point that no crime could be charged against Frank J. Godsol, by France, because all money received by him was paid to him in this country, and that if he had committed any offense he would have to be tried in this country and not in France, Attorney J. J. Darlingford argued before the Court of Appeals yesterday that no crime had been committed and that Godsol should not be extradited to France as had been requested by the French Ambassador here.

The argument before the Appellate Court involves the question of Godsol's extradition to France to answer charges alleging that he had obtained over $1,500,000 through automobile contracts from the French government by false pretenses. Godsol was committed to jail at a preliminary hearing before Justice Hitz, who said as the committing magistrate, but Godsol was released from custody by Justice Gould under habeas corpus proceedings. If the Court of Appeals should decide against Godsol, he would have to be extradited, unless steps were taken to carry the case to the United States Supreme Court. The decision of the Court of Appeals is not to be expected before the first Monday in March.

Attorney W. J. Lambert, who made the opening argument for Godsol, argued that it was impossible under the terms of the contract which Godsol had with the Pierce-Arrow Automobile Company to have made any false representations as charged by the French government.

Former Senator Joseph W. Bailey made an appeal for the rights of the individual and devoted himself to the principle that the complaint on which Godsol was committed, and as a result of law, charge him with an indictable offense.

United States District Attorney John E. Laskey and James B. Archer also argued the case for the Government.

MAY SEND SOME FOOD TO GERMANS

PARIS, Feb. 6.—The allied blockade council is considering the partial lifting of the blockade to enable a limited supply of food to be sent into Germany.

Vance McCormick is the American member of this organization, which met yesterday morning, will meet again Monday.

Six members, representing the United States, Great Britain and France, will be sent into Czechoslovakia to inquire into the tangle situation involved in the creation of this new republic.

"There are busy days for President Wilson. In fact, his time is so fully occupied, chiefly with the affairs of the League of Nations, that he has been compelled to postpone indefinitely his contemplated visit to Brussels. Wednesday was a typical 'Wilson day.' The President conferred with Premier Lloyd George and A. J. Balfour, the British foreign secretary, during the morning. In the afternoon he attended a meeting of the committee on a meeting of the committee on the League of Nations. The President has been compelled to change entirely his program of 'early to bed and early to rise,' to which he adhered during his life in the White House."

In addition to his ordinary duties the President received and directed important committee meetings for his guidance. He was present at the meeting of the reparations committee yesterday.

WAR MEMORIALS PLANNED BY HOUSE

Heroes and events of the great war will all be made enduring in bronze and marble, if the House has its way. A bill asking for suggestions from the Commission on Fine Arts on monuments and other memorials was favorably reported by the House Library Committee today.

In making the report, Chairman Slagden, of the committee, says the demand for commemoration is nationwide.

A statement already prepared by the Commission on Fine Arts, which will be presented to Congress, summarizes the various suggestions for memorials and monuments as follows: A memorial building, preferably for the use of the community, to be used as a gathering place for community service or entertainment; a memorial bridge; a memorial fountain; the village green laid out for playground and park purposes, and so improved and maintained. A fountain with a seat carrying an inscription for a tablet well designed, would form the center of memorial interest. A flagstaff with memorial base. Memorial gateways to parks or other public places. Memorial tablets for out-of-doors or for the walls of church, city hall, lodge room, or other buildings; stained-glass windows; medals; portrait statues; symbolic groups.

The Liberty Hut will seat 3,000 persons. Sunday will begin preaching at 7:30 o'clock. Before coming to Washington, Sunday will preach at 1 o'clock in Quantico, Va., to the marines. He is expected in Washington at 3:15 o'clock.

BUSINESS MEN CAN'T DODGE JURY SERVICE

Prominent business men will have to perform jury duty in the future, and any excuses they may offer in an effort to be relieved of it will have to be good and real ones, according to Chief Justice Mc Coy, who yesterday refused to excuse a number of prominent business men from doing jury service when the new jury for the coming term in the criminal court was sworn in.

The present jury is said to have one of its more representative business men than any other similar body ever had. There are the names of Frank E. Ghiselli, assistant cashier of the Commercial National Bank; Harry G. Meen, vice president and treasurer of the Washington Loan and Trust Company; George Herth, Jr., manager of the Standard Sanitary Manufacturing Company; Henry G. Hanford, auditor for the Evening Star, and Arthur D. Marks, business manager of the Washington Post.

GRAY HAIR BECOMES DARK AND BEAUTIFUL

Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wells' Sage and Sulphur Compound." You will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at very little cost. Everybody uses this preparation now, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You simply wash your hair with the compound and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the hair has changed color, and after another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

Is Your Blood Starving for Want of Iron?

Modern Methods of Cooking and Living Have Made an Alarming Increase in Iron Deficiency in Blood of American Men and Women

WHY NUXATED IRON SO QUICKLY BUILDS UP WEAK, NERVOUS, RUN-DOWN FOLKS—Over 3,000,000 People Annually Taking It In This Country Alone To Increase Their Strength, Power, Energy and Endurance.

"Is your blood starving for want of iron? Iron is red blood food. If you refuse to go without eating until you become weak, thin and emaciated you could not do a more serious harm to yourself than when you let your blood literally starve for want of iron—iron that gives it strength and power. Iron is the life-giving element. Without it, your blood is a lifeless mass. Says Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (New York City), New York and late Westchester County Hospital:

"Modern methods of cooking and the rapid pace at which people of this country live have made such an alarming increase in iron deficiency in the blood of American men and women that I have often marveled at the large number of people who lack iron in the blood, and who never suspect the cause of their weakness, nervous run-down state. Lack of iron in the blood not only makes a man a physical and mental weakling, but it utterly robs him of that virile force, that stamina and strength of will which are a man's power to success and power in every walk of life. It may also transform a beautiful, sweet-tempered woman into one who is cross, nervous and irritable. I have strongly emphasized the great necessity of physicians making blood examinations of their weak, anemic, run-down patients. Thousands of persons on their way to recovery from physical weakness and a highly nervous condition due to lack of sufficient iron in their red blood corpuscles without ever realizing the real and true cause of their trouble. Without iron in your blood your food merely passes through the body something like corn through a mill with rollers so wide apart that the mill can't grind."

"For want of iron you may be an old man at thirty, dull, irritable, poor in memory, nervous, feeble and all run-down" while at 60 or 65 you still be coming in feeling full of life, your whole being brimming over with vim and energy."

Here's proof of this take the case of Pompey, United States Senator and President of the Senate Charles A. Tamm, who at past 55 is as fit a vigorous mountain of flesh and bone as any man in the United States. Says Dr. Tamm: "I have found Nuxated Iron of the greatest benefit as a tonic and restorative. Henceforth I shall not be satisfied for the benefit of others in the remarkable and immediate restoration of my health. I have recommended Nuxated Iron to those who feel the need of regaining energy and the regularity of bodily functions."

"But in my opinion you can't make strong, keen, forceful men and women—robust, energetic, and healthy on metallic iron. The old forms of metallic iron must be through a digestive process transformed into organic iron. Nuxated Iron—before they are ready to be taken up and assimilated by the human system. No, notwithstanding all that has been said and written on this subject by well-known physicians, thousands of people still insist in dosing themselves with metallic iron simply."

with metallic iron simply. I suppose, because it costs a few cents less. I strongly advise readers in all cases to get a physician's prescription for organic iron—Nuxated Iron—or if you don't want to go through this trouble, purchase only Nuxated Iron in its original package and see that the name Nuxated Iron appears on the package. If you have taken preparations such as Nux and Iron and other iron and iron products and failed to get results, ask your doctor to get a different thing from Nuxated Iron. In communicating upon the value of Nuxated Iron as a means for creating red blood, strength and endurance, Dr. King, a New York Physician and Medical Author, writes:

"Scarcely a day goes by but that I see women whose careers are dragging steps and generally weak. I find a large number of signs of that anemic, run-down condition usually brought on by lack of iron in the blood."

"There can be no strong, healthy, beautiful woman without iron in her blood."

often they become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy. Give such a woman a short course of Nuxated Iron and the often quickly becomes an energetic, healthy and robust individual. I have used Nuxated Iron widely in my own practice in most cases of anemic conditions with unfailing results. I have induced many physicians to give it to all of whom have given me most surprising reports in regard to its great power as a health and strength builder."

Manufacturers Note: Nuxated Iron is used by Dr. Sullivan and others with such surprising results, and which is well known to druggists everywhere. Unlike the older iron tonic products, it is easily assimilated, does not irritate the stomach, and its manufacture is guaranteed successful and entirely satisfactory. Write to every druggist or they will refund your money. It is dispensed in this city by People's Drug Store, Liggett Co., and all other druggists.

GERMANS STARVING SAYS ARMY OFFICER

PARIS, Feb. 6.—The close personal study he has made of conditions in Germany has convinced Lieut. Col. Scarle Harris, of the United States medical reserve corps, that the German people are actually starving.

"He has just returned to Paris from a visit to Germany, and says that while a superficial view of the country gives the impression that the war has not hurt Germany, that country, in his opinion, has suffered more than any other."

Studying the situation as a physician, Lieut. Colonel Harris found that many persons, particularly children, were very anemic as they were not getting enough to eat.

Germany is a land of cemeteries, hospitals and starvation, he says. No one knows the number of casualties in the war, and in his belief no one will ever know. Colonel Harris estimates that the casualties vary from a million and a half to three million killed and twice as many wounded.

"The German nation is bankrupt, according to this officer, and while he regards the German people as the most despoiled in the world, he thinks that bread and meat should be sent to the women and children."
